SALEM SQUIBS.

A HAVERSACK OF HAPPENINGS,

Gathered Together By The Sentinel's Special Reporter.

Mrs. Augusta Ewald, of Wytheville, Va., is visiting relatives here.

ELM Street Sunday School gave two very pleasant entertainments on last Saturday and Monday evenings. There were good audiences on both occasions and both teachers and scholars deserve credit for the acceptable manner in which the programme was arranged and rendered.

MR. C. A. HEGE has two young foxes which he purchased and gave to his children as pets. The animals are cunning looking little fellows and judging from the excavations made in the side-walk adjoining their quonset will rival white and spotted rabbits in burrowing propensities.

BLACKBERRIES never fail and this year is no exception. The trade in dried berries is an industry of considerable magnitude in this section, and let the old fields and fence corners be where they may, it can be said to their credit that they bring many hundreds of dollars into the pockets of our farmers and merchants, which, to be sure, is better than no crop at all.

THE Wachovia Cornet Club gave the first Promenade Concert of the season in the Salem Square on Tuesday evening. The weather was disagreeably cool but notwithstanding, quite a large crowd was in attendance and all seemed to enjoy themselves. The music was splendid and another concert at an early day would meet the hearty approval of all our pleasure loving citizens. The proceeds of the evening were far above expectations.

C. B. Watson, D. P. Mast, Eugene E. Gray, YOUNG VOTERS.

A SENSIBLE SUGGESTION.

The Grand Jury were discharged on last Saturday and in their report suggested the establishment of a house of correction. Judge Graves was favorably impressed with the idea and stated that our former friends, Mr. Faraday and the counties of Forsyth, Stokes, Surry and Yadkin would not only consider, but take steps for the erection of such an institution, the reformation of the inmates of which were not grievous and whose ideas of morality not too depraved.

STICK A PIN HERE.

A gentleman from a neighboring county was in town on Tuesday and after giving our Tobacco sales a close inspection departed, deploring the fact that he had disposed of his entire crop at a warehouse in an adjoining town and had received an average of $13.00, which, if he had brought to Winston would have footed him up at least an average of $18.00 or $20.00. This we publish simply that our former friends will not be enticed to smaller markets, when they are guaranteed the highest market price in this State or Virginia, by the Warehouse men of Winston. We have twenty odd factories, and buyers without number, which is a sufficient guarantee for every assertion that is given our former friends that Winston takes the lead as the largest and best market and offers every possible inducement for them to bring their tobacco here.

His goods are purchased from parties in New York who are compelled to have the cash and he defies competition in quality and prices. Read his attractive advertisement in another column and then go and examine his stock for yourselves.

THE SALEM MUSEUM OF ANCIENT AND MODERN CURIOSITIES.

The museum of curiosities mentioned in last week's paper, has been opened at the Salem Music Hall for the inspection of a generous-hearted, pleasure seeking public. The exhibition has already been visited by a large number of citizens and all thus far have been greatly interested in the collection of curiosities, case of Sen. Mendenhall, Sea, West, Antique China Ware, Antique and Modern Needlework, Old Kitchen and Utensils, Indian Wigwam, Wolf Skins, Robes, &c., &c., Confederate and State Money, Old tables, Old Spinning Wheels, Old Piano, Old inscriptions, a beautiful display of unique carved cases by our worthy Sheriff, Wooden Shoes from India, a coin found under Solomon's Temple, and a host of other things.
